

Divine India

Golden Special with Sacred Places (Delhi – Jaipur – Agra – Orchha – Khajuraho – Varanasi – Bodhgaya – Delhi – Rishikesh)

A spiritual journey is a journey of inner awakening and meaningful connection, guided by ancestral practices and sacred rituals.

During this tour, we will participate in powerful aarti and hawan ceremonies, bathe in the sacred Ganges River for spiritual cleansing, and recite mantras to elevate our inner energy. Each day will include revitalizing activities to calm the mind, center the body, and deepen self-awareness through sessions such as yoga or meditation.

Creating a sense of unity and mutual support within the group, we will form energy circles together to share positive thoughts and healing vibrations on the riverbanks.

There will also be optional opportunities to receive astrology or numerology readings as personal guidance. We will embrace acts of compassion through volunteering, including the care of sacred animals such as cows.

Additionally, we will explore the rich mythology and divine stories of gods and goddesses, gaining deeper spiritual knowledge. At the heart of this journey lies the true essence of spirituality: good karma. Through selfless giving, loving actions, and a pure heart, we draw closer to inner peace — the supreme path toward spiritual growth.

ITINERARY - THE GOLDEN TRIANGLE WITH SACRED PLACES

DELHI – JAIPUR – AGRA – ORCHHA – KHAJURAHO – VARANASI – BODHGAYA – DELHI – RISHIKESH

Day 1 — ARRIVAL IN DELHI

Arrival at Delhi's international airport. After immigration formalities and baggage collection, we will meet you at the Arrivals Terminal and escort you to your hotel. Upon arrival at the hotel, we will check in (standard check-in time is 14:00).

India's capital is the main gateway into the country. Contemporary Delhi is a bustling metropolis that successfully blends the old with the new. Amid towering skyscrapers stand buildings and monuments from another era, their forms silently recalling the ancient heritage of this region. The first impression for any visitor comes during the journey from the airport, which presents itself as a kind of garden city, surrounded by trees and beautiful parks. We will take you to an Aarti ceremony to receive blessings from the gods and begin our journey with good health and peace of mind. In Indian culture, whenever we begin a journey or a new project, we ask for good luck by performing an Aarti ceremony and applying a tika (a sacred mark on the forehead made with colored powder, kumkum, or sandalwood paste, used during religious rituals).

Accommodation: Meal Plan: Breakfast

Day 2 — NEW DELHI Breakfast at the hotel. Enjoy a morning discovering Old Delhi, getting to know some of the capital's most important historical and cultural attractions. Visit Raj Ghat, a moving monument commemorating Gandhi's life, then continue through the Rashtrapati Bhavan district, where all the major government buildings and the national parliament are located, along with the India Gate — all grand examples of British imperial political power at its peak in India — and the Salt March monument. Also visit the famous Connaught Place, the commercial hub of the capital. Later, we visit the magnificent Sikh temple, Bangla Sahib, where one feels peace and connection with oneself. We conclude with the Swaminarayan Temple, known as Akshardham — the largest temple in the world. Accommodation: Meal Plan: Breakfast

3 — NEW DELHI – JAIPUR (256 km)

Buffet breakfast at the hotel.

Departure by road toward Jaipur. Along the way, we continue enjoying and learning more about the people, the country, its culture, history, and the meaning behind each ritual they perform. You are welcome to ask your guide questions during the journey.

Jaipur is the capital of the state of Rajasthan, a romantic kingdom of gleaming palaces, great fortresses, and royal maharajas set in the western desert, forming a landscape unique to all of India. The bustling Rajasthani capital, Jaipur, takes its name from its revered founder Jai Singh II, upon whom the Mughals bestowed the title of Maharaja Sawai — literally meaning "one and a quarter," suggesting that the Mughal court considered this emperor more valuable than merely "one." Jaipur is known as the "Pink City" in reference to the distinctive color of its buildings. This peculiarity, however, was not part of the original plan; it dates back to 1856, when the buildings were painted pink to honor the State Visit of Prince Albert.

Arrival in Jaipur, hotel check-in, rest.

Day 4 — JAIPUR – AMBER – JAIPUR

Buffet breakfast at the hotel.

In the morning, we attend the Hawan ceremony, a Hindu ritual. We perform this ritual to bring positive energy into the body and release negative energy.

Afterward, we visit Amber Fort. Once inside, we tour the Jagmandir Palace, Jaimahal, and the Kali Temple with its gardens. Amber Fort, overlooking Lake Maota, has a reputation for having been the treasure of the Kacchwaha rulers. Its construction was begun by Man Singh I in 1592 and completed by his descendant Jai Singh I. Its imposing exteriors conceal an internal paradise where a beautiful fusion of Mughal and Hindu styles finds its fullest expression. At the foot of the hill, you may ride an elephant for the slow but steady ascent to the main gate, entering in the purest style of honorable times past. The fort, completed in the early 18th century, took 100 years to build and today, though abandoned, offers a fascinating glimpse into the Mughal family way of life.

In the afternoon, visit the typical markets and shops, and tour the textile factories where traditional clothing with original Jaipur designs is made. We then visit the Birla Temple during the aarti ceremony. The Birla Temple is very ancient and famous for its grand and sacred ceremony — a wonderful place to spend a long time in peace. Later, we enjoy a dinner with the marvelous traditional dances of Jaipur.

Day 6 — AGRA – JHANSI – ORCHHA After breakfast at the hotel, transfer to the train station to board the Shatabdi Express at 08:10, arriving in Jhansi at 10:45. Onward transfer to Orchha, a monumental village. This small town boasts an enormous heritage, with attractions such as the island of the impressive palace-fortress, the chhatra cenotaphs, and several Hindu temples. Explore the rustic streets of the village, discovering the hidden beauty of the decaying monuments built by the Bundela Rajputs over more than four centuries. Accommodation: Meal Plan: Breakfast

Day 7 — ORCHHA – KHAJURAHO After breakfast, we travel by road to the hotel in Khajuraho. We then attend an Aarti ceremony, a Hindu ritual. Accommodation: Meal Plan: Breakfast

Day 8 — KHAJURAHO

Breakfast at the hotel before visiting the erotic temples that have made the village of Khajuraho famous. The complex, declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site, consists of about 20 temples with over a thousand years of history. The temples display thousands of relief sculptures depicting various sexual and religious postures. Visit the temples of Chausath Yogini, Kandariya Mahadeva, Chitragupta, Vishwanath, Lakshmana, and Vishnu Garuda. In the afternoon, we hold a Tantra class and rituals. In the afternoon, visit a Hindu family in a village, take a cooking class, and learn about the castes. Accommodation: Meal Plan: Breakfast

Day 9 — KHAJURAHO – VARANASI Breakfast at the hotel, then we travel by road to Varanasi, the "sacred city" of the Hindus. Arrival, assistance, and transfer to the hotel. In the afternoon, transfer to the banks of the Ganges at sunset for a boat ride along the river. We will participate in the beautiful Aarti ritual on the banks of the Ganges — one of the most important rituals in Varanasi, where faith connects with the river. Observing from the boat the ritual purification ceremonies and the sacred bathing of pilgrims at the ghats. Watch as the murmur grows louder with the arrival of ever more devotees coming to perform their ritual ablutions in the sacred river. The day ends with a stroll along the ghats (steps used for Hindu rituals) by rickshaw. Accommodation: Meal Plan: Breakfast

Day 10 — VARANASI At dawn, a boat ride along the sacred Ganges River to see the "Ghats" (ritual bathing steps) and the cremation sites. Watching believers bathe and worship the river at the Ghats is one of the most extraordinary experiences a traveler can have in India. Millions of pilgrims come here to purify themselves in the river waters, attend ancient rites, consult astrologers, and expel negative karma. We will walk through the alleyways of the old quarter to witness the depth of the Hindu religion in people's daily lives. Return to the hotel and breakfast. Excursion to Sarnath, the buried Buddhist city where the Buddha gave his first sermon. Sarnath was a renowned center of learning from the 6th century BC to the 12th century AD. Visit the ruins, the Stupa, the Buddhist Temple, and the Museum.

Accommodation: Meal Plan: Breakfast Days 11/12 — VARANASI – BODHGAYA After breakfast, we depart by road to Bodhgaya, a minimum of 6 hours away. Enjoy the days in Bodhgaya; visit the Mahabodhi Temple and other temples. Accommodation: Meal Plan: Breakfast

Day 13 — BODHGAYA – DELHI

After breakfast, we head to the airport for Delhi. Arrival at Delhi airport. Transfer to the hotel, check-in, and rest.

Accommodation: Meal Plan: Breakfast

Days 14/15/16 — DELHI – RISHIKESH

After a delicious breakfast, we transfer to the airport to take the flight to Dehradun, then drive to Rishikesh, which is 45 minutes away. Upon arrival in Rishikesh, we check in at the hotel.

We will participate in the following activities: Meditation and yoga on the banks of the Ganges River, bathing in the Sacred River, offering water to the sun and Shiva (a Hindu ritual), and finally floating a candle with flowers on the river.

Visits to ashrams, meeting Gurus during their lectures or during the aarti ceremony (subject to their availability on those days).

Aarti ceremony at the Ganges River (Triveni Ghat — after the ceremony we celebrate our love for the Ganges with full emotion through dance and song; on another day we will also attend the ceremony at Parmarth Ashram). Visit to Ram Jhula and the typical markets of Rishikesh.

Day 17 — RISHIKESH – DELHI After breakfast, we depart by road to Delhi. We leave in time for your international flight — after a long journey, the day has come to say farewell to the country, but carry its love with you.
