

We travel through northern India to explore four emblematic destinations: Delhi, Jaipur, Agra, and Rishikesh, each with its own magic. In Delhi, the vibrant capital, we get lost among the chaos and charm of its streets. Historic monuments like Old Delhi tell us about the past, while its bustling markets and modern avenues reflect the city's energy. Jaipur, the Pink City, welcomes us with its majestic palaces and forts, like Amber Fort and the Palace of the Winds. The city radiates history and color, while its people infect us with their warmth and joy. In Agra, the Taj Mahal leaves us breathless, as a symbol of eternal love that continues to fascinate thousands of visitors. Besides this monument, the city offers a rich cultural heritage and a unique atmosphere. Finally, Rishikesh, the spiritual capital of India, invites us to reflection and peace. Located on the banks of the Ganges, it is a sacred destination where spirituality and nature meet in perfect harmony. A trip full of contrasts and unique beauty.

A spiritual journey is a journey of inner awakening and meaningful connection, guided by ancestral practices and sacred rituals. During this journey, we will participate in powerful aarti and havan ceremonies, bathe in the sacred Ganges River for spiritual cleansing, and recite mantras to raise our inner energy. Each day will include revitalizing activities to calm the mind, center the body, and deepen self-awareness, through sessions like yoga or meditation. Creating a sense of unity and mutual support within the group, we will form circles of energy to share positive thoughts and healing vibrations on the riverbank.

At the heart of this journey lies the true essence of spirituality: good karma. Through selfless giving, loving actions, and a pure heart, we approach inner peace, which is the supreme path towards spiritual growth.

| Day 1 | ARRIVAL DELHI |
|-------|---------------|

Arrival at Delhi International Airport. After immigration and baggage claim, we will meet you at the Arrivals Terminal and transfer you to your hotel.

Upon arrival at the hotel, we will check in (the standard check-in time is 2:00 p.m.).

India's capital is the main gateway to the country. Contemporary Delhi is a bustling metropolis that successfully combines the old and the new. Amidst the towering skyscrapers, buildings and monuments from a bygone era emerge, their shapes silently reminiscent of the region's ancient heritage.

The first impression for any visitor is during the drive from the airport, as it presents itself as a kind of garden city, surrounded by trees and beautiful parks.

We take you to an Aarti ceremony to receive the blessings of the gods and begin our journey in good health and peace.

In Indian culture, whenever we begin a journey or a new project, we ask for good luck by performing an Aarti ceremony and applying a tika (a sacred mark on the forehead made with colored powder, kumkum, or sandalwood paste, used during religious rituals).

Day 2

NEW DELHI

Breakfast at the hotel. Enjoy a morning exploring Old Delhi, visiting some of the capital's most important historical and cultural attractions. Next, visit Raj Ghat, a moving monument commemorating Gandhi's life. Continue with a tour of the Rashtrapati Bhavan district, home to all the important government buildings and the national parliament, as well as India Gate — all grand examples of the political power at the height of the British Empire in India — and the Salt March monument. Also, visit the famous Connaught Place, the capital's commercial hub.

Later, visit the wonderful Sikh temple, Bangla Sahib, where you will feel peace and a connection with yourself.

We finish with the Swaminarayan temple, known as the Akshardham Temple, the largest in the world

Day 3

NEW DELHI JAIPUR (73 Km)

Buffet breakfast at the hotel.

We depart by road for Jaipur. Along the way, we continue to enjoy ourselves, learning more about the people, the country, and its culture. The stories and meanings of each ritual can be freely discussed with your guide during the trip.

Jaipur is the capital of the state of Rajasthan, a romantic kingdom of resplendent palaces, great fortresses, and royal maharajahs that lies in the Western Desert and forms a landscape unique in all of India.

The bustling capital of Rajasthan, Jaipur, owes its name to its revered founder Jai Singh II, who was granted the title of Maharaja Sawai by the Mughals. The literal translation of this title is “one and a quarter,” suggesting that the Mughal emperor considered him more valuable than just “one.”

Jaipur is known as the “Pink City” in reference to the distinctive color of its buildings. This peculiarity, however, was not part of the original plan; it dates back to 1856, when it was decided to paint the city's buildings pink in honor of the state visit of Prince Albert.

Day 4

JAIPUR- AMBER -JAIPUR

Buffet breakfast at the hotel.

In the morning, we attended a Hawan ceremony, a Hindu ritual performed to bring positive energy into the body and release negative energy.

Afterwards, we will visit Amber Fort. Once inside, we will tour the Jagmandir Palace, Jai Mahal, and the Temple of Kali with its gardens.

Amber Fort, overlooking Lake Maatha, is reputed to have been the treasure house of the Kacchwaha rulers. Its construction was started by Man Singh I in 1592 and completed by his descendant Jai Singh I. Its formidable exterior hides an inner paradise where a beautiful fusion between Mughal and Hindu styles finds its maximum expression.

At the foot of the hill, you can ride an equipped elephant to begin the slow but steady climb to the main gate, making your entrance in the purest style of honorable times.

The fort, completed at the beginning of the 18th century, took 100 years to build and today, although abandoned, offers a fascinating insight into the lifestyle of the Mughal families.

In the afternoon, we visit the typical markets, go shopping, and visit the textile factories, where traditional clothing with original Jaipur designs is made. Then, we will visit Birla Temple during the Aarti ceremony. The Birla Temple is very ancient and famous for its grand and sacred ceremony. It has a peaceful seating area to spend time in reflection.

Later, we will enjoy a dinner accompanied by the wonderful traditional dances of Jaipur.

Day6

AGRA

Buffet breakfast at the hotel. In the morning, we will visit the Taj Mahal (closed on Fridays) – a true architectural marvel that often becomes the highlight of any trip to Agra. The Taj Mahal is known as a monument to love, and it impresses with the breathtaking beauty of its white marble architecture. It was commissioned by Shah Jahan as a symbol of the deep love he had for his beautiful wife, Mumtaz Mahal. Designed by Persian architect Ustad Isa, its construction took 22 years and it has become one of the Wonders of the World. The Taj Mahal is admired for its imposing design, perfect symmetry, elegant carved domes, and, among other remarkable features, some of the finest inlay work ever seen.

After visiting this impressive palace, we will head to explore the Agra Fort. The Agra Fort, also known as the Red Fort of Agra and locally referred to as “Lal Quila,” is situated on the banks of the Yamuna River in the city of Agra. It is called the Red Fort due to the red sandstone used in its construction, which gives it its distinctive color. The Agra Fort was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1983. Construction of the fort began in 1565, and it was designed as a walled palace surrounded by a deep water-filled moat. The Amar Singh Gate serves as the main entrance to the fortress. Inside, we will visit numerous palaces and noble buildings built by Emperor Akbar, one of the great Mughal rulers. These structures were later used by successive governments of the Mughal Empire as a base of operations.

In the evening, visit to the local typical markets of Agra and back to hotel. Accommodation:

Meals: Breakfast

After breakfast, we will depart by road to Rishikesh. Upon arrival at the hotel, we will check in.

We will then take part in the following activities:

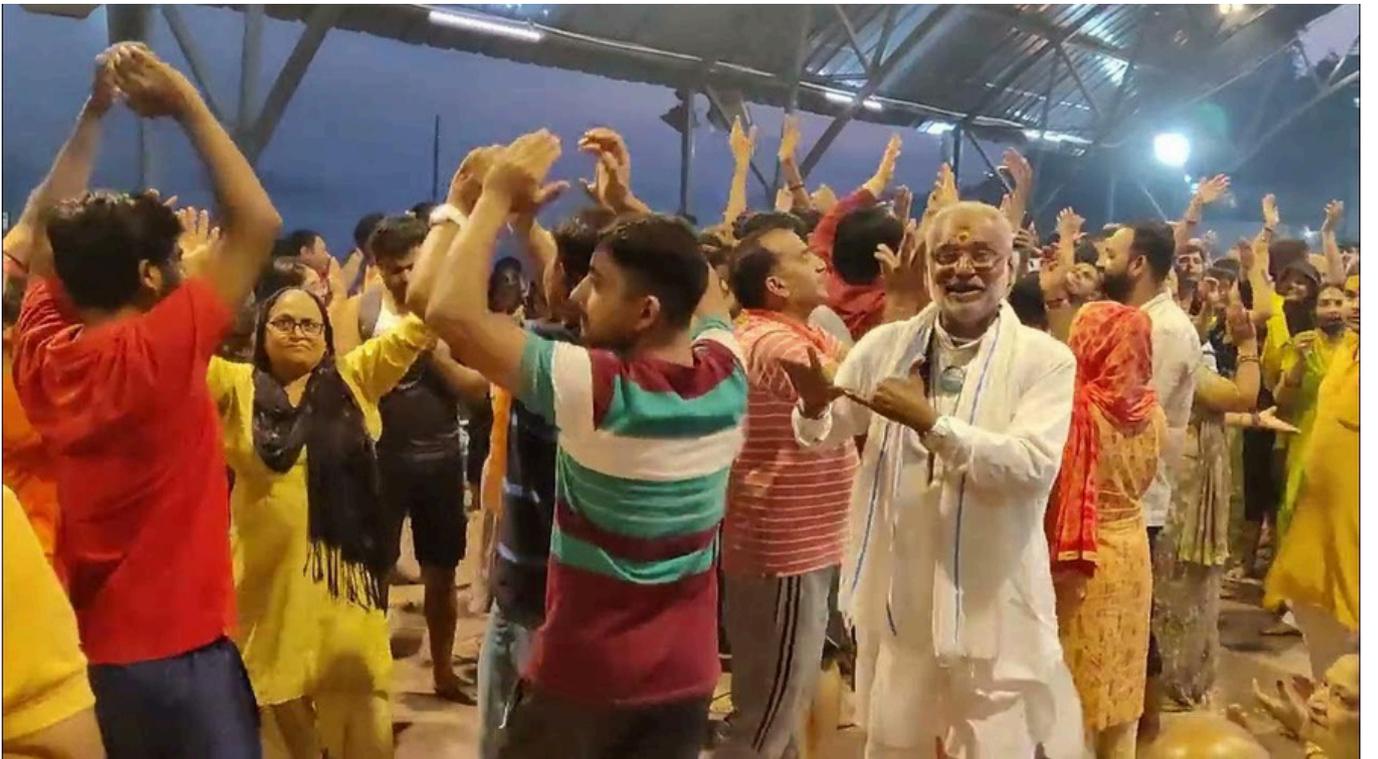

Meditation and yoga on the banks of the Ganges River, bathing in the sacred river, offering water to the sun and to Shiva (a traditional Hindu ritual), and finally offering a floating candle with flowers to the river.

Visit to the ashrams, where we may encounter gurus during their readings or during the aarti ceremony, depending on their availability during those days.

Participation in the Ganges River aarti ceremony at Triveni Ghat. After the ceremony, we will celebrate our love for the Ganges through joyful dance and song. On another day, we will also attend the aarti ceremony at Par-marth Ashram.

Visit to Ram Jhula and exploration of the traditional markets of Rishikesh.
