

A spiritual journey is a journey of inner awakening and meaningful connection, guided by ancestral practices and sacred rituals. During this tour, we will participate in powerful aarti and hawan ceremonies, bathe in the sacred Ganges River for spiritual cleansing, and recite mantras to elevate our inner energy. Each day will include revitalizing activities to calm the mind, center the body, and deepen self-awareness through sessions such as yoga or meditation. Creating a sense of unity and mutual support within the group, we will form energy circles together to share positive thoughts and healing vibrations on the banks of the river. There will also be optional opportunities to receive astrology or numerology readings as personal guidance. We will embrace acts of compassion through volunteering, including the care of sacred animals such as cows. Additionally, we will explore the rich mythology and divine stories of gods and goddesses, gaining deeper spiritual knowledge. At the heart of this journey lies the true essence of spirituality: good karma. Through selfless giving, loving actions, and a pure heart, we draw closer to inner peace, which is the supreme path to spiritual growth.

ITINERARY

THE GOLDEN TRIANGLE WITH SACRED PLACES

DELHI – AGRA – VARANASI – BODHGAYA – DELHI

Day 1,

ARRIVAL IN DELHI

Arrival at Delhi International Airport. After immigration formalities and baggage collection, we will meet you at the Arrivals Terminal and transfer you to your hotel.

Upon arrival at the hotel, we will check in (standard check-in time is 2:00 PM).

India's capital is the main gateway to the country. Contemporary Delhi is a bustling metropolis that successfully blends the old and the new. Amid towering skyscrapers stand buildings and monuments from a bygone era, whose forms silently recall the ancient heritage of this region. The first impression for any visitor comes during the journey from the airport, which presents itself as a kind of garden city, surrounded by trees and beautiful parks.

We will take you to an Aarti ceremony to receive the blessings of the gods and begin our journey with good health and peace of mind.

In Indian culture, whenever we begin a journey or a new project, we ask for good luck by performing an Aarti ceremony and applying a tika (a sacred mark on the forehead made with colored powder, kumkum, or sandalwood paste, used during religious rituals).

Day 2,

NEW DELHI

Breakfast at the hotel. Enjoy a morning discovering Old Delhi, getting to know some of the most important historical and cultural attractions of the capital. Next, visit Raj Ghat, a moving monument commemorating the life of Gandhi, then continue through the Rashtrapati Bhavan district, where all the important government buildings and the national parliament are located, as well as the India Gate — all grand examples of the political might at the zenith of the British Empire in India — and the Salt March Monument. Also visit the famous Connaught Place, the commercial hub of the capital.

Later we visit the magnificent Sikh temple, Bangla Sahib, where one feels peace and connection with oneself. We finish with the temple of Swami Narayana, known as the Akshardham Temple, the largest in the world.

Day 4,

AGRA (236 KM)

Buffet breakfast at the hotel.

In the morning, we attend the Hawan ceremony, a Hindu ritual. We perform this ritual to bring good energy into the body and release negative energy.

After the visit, arrival in Agra.

In the afternoon, visit to the Taj Mahal (closed on Fridays). The Taj Mahal is an architectural wonder that always ends up becoming the soul of every tourist visit to Agra. A monument to love — that is how the Taj Mahal is defined, impressive for the beauty of its white marble architecture. Shah Jahan ordered its construction as an expression of the love he felt for his beautiful wife, Mumtaz Mahal. Designed by Persian architect Ustad Isa, it took 22 years to build and has become one of the wonders of the world. It features an imposing design, perfect symmetry, elegant carved domes, and among other masterpieces, the finest inlaid work ever seen.

Check in at hotel.

Day 5,

AGRA – VARANASI

Breakfast at the hotel. We travel by road to Varanasi, the 'sacred city' of the Hindus.

Arrival, assistance, and transfer to the hotel. In the afternoon, transfer to the banks of the Ganges at sunset to enjoy a boat ride on the river. We will take part in a beautiful Aarti ritual on the banks of the Ganges River — one of the most important rituals in Varanasi, where faith is connected to the river.

From the boat, observe the ritual purification ceremonies and the sacred baths of pilgrims at the ghats. Notice how the murmur grows louder with the arrival of more and more devotees coming to perform their ritual ablutions in the sacred river. The day ends with a stroll along the ghats (steps used for Hindu rituals) by rickshaw tricycle.

Day 6

VARANASI

In the early hours of the morning, a boat ride on the sacred Ganges River to see the "Ghats" (ritual bathing steps) and the cremation sites. Watching believers bathe and worship the river at the Ghats is one of the most extraordinary experiences a traveler can enjoy in India. Millions of pilgrims come here to purify themselves in the river's waters, attend ancient rites, consult astrologers, and expel negative karma. We will walk through the narrow lanes of the old city to witness the depth of Hindu religion in the everyday life of the people. Return to the hotel and breakfast. Excursion to Sarnath, the buried Buddhist city where Buddha gave his first sermon. Sarnath was a renowned center of learning from the 6th century BC to the 12th century AD. Visit to the ruins, the Stupa, the Buddhist Temple, and the Museum.
